BIG TRIAL LIST FOR AUGUST COURT

Largest List for Trial in Adams County Court in Many Years. Many Cases Grew Out of July Celebration.

With probably the longest list of cases that has ever been on the docket, the August session of criminal court will start Monday, the 25th. Before the temporary disposition of the eight W. B. Henry cases, on Saturday, there were listed for trial 58 charges. During the past fifty years the greatest number for trial with the exception of this term was at the August term of 1886, when fifty cases were disposed of. The smallest number was that of the January term in 1898, at which only eight cases were heard.

Four days remain between now and the opening of the session and it is likely that several more returns will be made in that time. The exceptionally large list is accounted for to a degree by the great crowds here during the celebration in July. A recent decision of the appellate court will not permit the defendants to plead guilty until the Grand Jury has acted on the charges. Formerly many cases had been disposed of by the defendants pleading guilty and being sentenced without further parley, but now all cases occurring since the April term must be heard at this session.

The following is the list, with the defendants, the offense and the informants:

Com. vs. Oliver Miller of Cumberland township, charged with assault and battery on oath of J. A. Plank, returned by Justice R. S. Harnish.

Com. vs. Wm. F. Colehouse, of Conewago township charged with desertion and maintenance on oath of Josephine Colehouse returned by Justice V. H. Lilly, of McSherrystown.

Com. vs. John Steffy charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons by Policeman Emmons of Gettysburg, returned by Justice Harnish.

RESCUED AT ATLANTIC CITY

James King is Rescued from Drowning by Life Guards at Sea Shore Was Trying to Swim around Million Dollar Pier.

James King, son of William King, who lives at the corner of Franklin and Middle streets, was rescued from drowning while attempting to swim around the Million Dollar Pier at Atlantic City, on Monday.

Young King, who works at the plumbing trade, is employed by Allen B. Plank, but has been at Atlantic City spending his vacation since last week. He is a strong young man and has been able to swim quite long distances in fresh water. The tide out by the end of the Million Dollar Pier at some times during the day runs very strong and it requires a swimmer of more than ordinary ability to make the swim. The greatest danger is possibly from being washed against the jagged pier pilings. According to accounts, this is what occurred to King. He was weakened by continuous battering against these pier supports until he was unable to continue fighting the strong currents.

Pier fishermen saw his struggles and tossed a life buoy to him. He held to this until life guards put out from the shore and rescued him. It is thought that young King was not seriously hurt and that he recovered rapidly from his unpleasant experience, for the reason that he did not send any word to his family. He is expected to return home in a few days.

NEW 12-CENT STAMP

Provided by the Government to Meet Certain Changed Conditions.

A new 12-cent postage stamp is to be provided by the post office department to meet the changed conditions arising from the increase of the fee for registering letters and parcels from 8 to 10 cents. Acting Postmaster General Stewart has requested the secretary of the treasury to authorize the preparation of such.

The new stamp will ultimately result in the discontinuance of the 13-cent stamp. The latter was calculated to cover the cost of the eight cent registry fee and the 5 cent international postage rate. The 15-cent stamp will serve this purpose, for the registry fee has been increased from 8 to 10 cents. The proposed 12-cent stamp will cover the registry fee and the two-cent postage rate in this country and for England and Germany. The 12-cent stamp was discontinued some years ago. It bore the head of Washington.

REFORMED TEAM WINS EASILY

Methodists go down to Defeat in Loosest Played Game of Season by Score of 11—6. Attendance Unusually Small.

The Reformed team beat the Methodist on Tuesday evening to the tune of 11 to 6. The game was made up of errors and overthrows and was one of the loosest games played so far this summer.

Perhaps the feature of the game was the pitching of Appller, for the Reformed, who had eleven strike outs to his credit, but no support by his men behind him.

The first inning saw the Reformed team, which had first bat, make four runs. D. Kendeheart singled, stole second and brought in the first run when Hoofnagle drove out a two bagger. Appller followed with another two-base hits scoring Hoofnagle, and he in turn scored on a single by G. Kendeheart. Felix then came up and hit the ball for two bases scoring G. Kendeheart.

The Methodists in their half of this inning did not score and the Reformed were unable to score in the first half of the second.

In the second, H. Armor took first on a passed ball, stole second, and scored when Zincand singled; Myers, next up hit safely for a base, scoring Zincand. The Methodists made one run again in the third when Tawney reached first on an error of centre field, stole his way to home plate, coming in when the catcher muffed a ball.

In the fourth the Reformed again made five runs, which were brought in by W. Duncan, D. Kendeheart, Appller, Woodward and G. Kendeheart.

The Methodists also made three runs in this inning when Myers, Tawney and Rupp raced around the bags and easily came home with runs, as the inning was practically a chaos of overthrows and errors.

The fifth inning allowed the Reformed to get away with two more runs. E. Myers singled and W. Duncan later scored an overthrow to third.

The attendance at Tuesday evenings game was unusually small but there was plenty of amusement for the fans who were out, as players on both teams were evidently on a vacation and would not run to first base unless they saw the ball safely out of reach of the players.—no chances were taken of trying to get to base and being thrown out.

To-night's game will be Presbyterian vs Catholic.

NEW PRIMARY LAW PLEASES ELECTORS

Is Thought New Time Set for Primary Election Will Produce Larger Number of Voters. Day and Time Changed.

The change of the day of the primary election from Saturday, to Tuesday, and devoting the entire day to the voting, is believed, will have the effect of bringing out a larger vote at the coming primary in Adams County than ever before at a similar election. The state-wide primary law enacted at the recent legislature decrees that in each even-numbered year, when a state or presidential election is held, the primary shall take place on the third Tuesday in May, and in the odd-numbered years, when city and county officials are chosen, the third Tuesday in September shall be the time.

Under the old primary system the weeding out of the candidates was done on the last day of the week, between the hours of 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. The saloons were not closed while the balloting was in progress. Seven years ago, when the public conscience was deeply stirred on the subject of the reform of the lax election laws of the state, the legislature responded with the uniform primary act. It compelled the closing of all liquor licensed places, but continued Saturday as the day with 2 p. m. to 8 p. m. as the hours for voting. The liquor selling places were required to close at 1 p. m. and remain so until 10 p. m.

Almost from the time the first primary was held under the new order of things, there was more or less dissatisfaction. The landlords complained because they were forced to keep closed during the hours which were ordinarily the best. Some voters registered a kick because not sufficient time was allowed, interfering with their regular Saturday half-holiday plans. But notwithstanding the constantly widening extent of the discontent seven years elapsed before the desired change was accomplished.

The change, it is believed, will have the effect of increasing the vote generally. From 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. is ample time for any one to cast a ballot who desires. As to the landlords, it will also no doubt suit them. The liquor selling places must close at 6 a. m., but can reopen at 8 p. m.

THAW JAILED IN CANADIAN TOWN

Will Probably be Returned to New York.

WAS HEADED FOR QUEBEC

Was Recognized on Train by New Hampshire Sheriff, Who Followed Him Across Border.

Coaticook, Quebec, Aug. 20.—Harry K. Thaw is in jail here. He will be arraigned at Sherbrooke as a fugitive from justice in the United States.

The final disposition of the prisoner, however, rests with the Dominion government.

Thaw was arrested at Hermenegilde-Garford, a small village near Coaticook. An hour before he had driven across the line from New Hampshire. He admitted his identity and complacently declared that he could not be extradited, as he had committed no crime.

Two men, who are supposed to have accompanied Thaw in his spectacular flight from the insane hospital at Matteawan, New York, last Sunday morning, were in his company and were also detained.

They were charged with "being under suspicion of having committed an offense in another and friendly nation." The two men, one of large build and the other a smaller man, at once retained counsel and refused to disclose their names.

The $500 reward for Thaw's arrest belongs to Sheriff B. H. Kelsea, of Coaticook, N. H., who recognized Thaw on a Maine Central railroad train. After the fugitive had left the train at Herford, Kelsea pursued him to Hermenegilde-Garford, where, at the request of the sheriff, a Canadian constable placed the fugitive under arrest.

Hermenegilde-Garford is a small village two miles south of Coaticook, and Thaw was brought to Coaticook. Although he had already admitted his identity to Sheriff Kelsea, he at first denied that he was the man who escaped from Matteawan. Later he freely admitted the facts of which the police were already convinced. He said, however, that he would fight any effort to extradite him, and retained Attorney J. Shirliff to look after his interests.

Shirliff had a long conference with his client before he was arraigned at Sherbrooke. Thaw will probably be taken from Sherbrooke to Montreal.

Hector Verret, king's counsel at Coaticook, is acting for Sheriff Kelsea, who is the actual complainant in the case. Kelsea charged that Thaw was a fugitive from justice and demanded that he be held for the United States authorities.

The police immediately after the arrival of Thaw sent a message to Superintendent Kiehl, of the Matteawan hospital, notifying him of the arrest, and giving a description of the prisoner. The superintendent replied, asking that the man be held.

Thaw's companions were not put in jail, but appeared to be under surveillance, presumably in custody of their counsel.

Thaw shut up like a clam after he had seen counsel and nothing was learned by the police of his flight up to the time that Sheriff Kelsea recognized him on a Maine Central railway train that was taking him from northern New Hampshire into Canada.

Had he not made inquiries of the sheriff regarding the country through which he was passing he probably would have been in Quebec and possibly aboard a steamer sailing for England, without having had his identity suspected.

Thaw was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dupey and was remanded to the Sherbrooke jail. He will appear before Judge Mulvena, extradition commissioner.

Thaw was examined by Dr. Tremblay, who found that he was suffering from excitement. The examination was made because Thaw looked flushed and feverish. The doctor asked Thaw to give him a thumb print impression, but this the prisoner declined to do.

THAW'S CANADIAN STATUS

Officials Cite Law on Persons Previously Held as Insane or Criminal.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 20.—There would appear to be some reason for the belief, expressed here, that the Canadian authorities will surrender Thaw to the American authorities at some point on the New York state border.

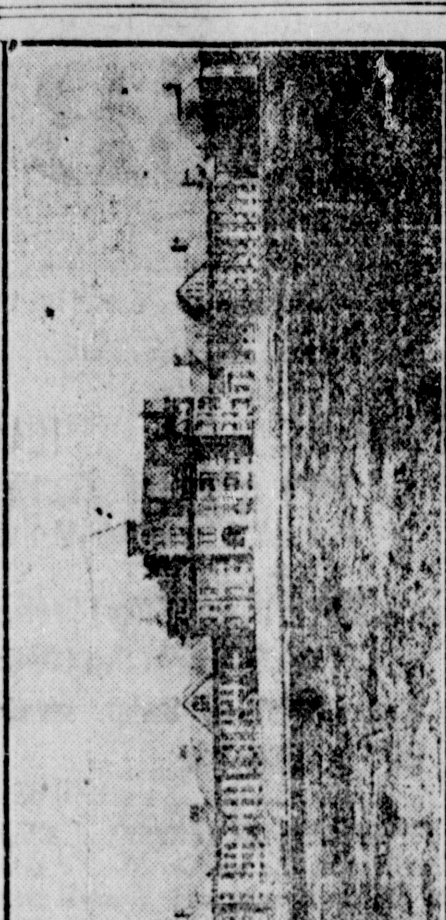

The rule under which this action would be taken provides that any person who, within five years of his incarceration in a penitentiary or insane asylum, enters Canada, may be sent back as an undesirable.

Officials of the justice department at Ottawa do not believe that Thaw can be detained legally at Coaticook.

At the immigration department this statement was made: "Thaw can be deported from Coaticook as an undesirable, provided he did not have transportation reading to some foreign point via Canada."

Winter Garb With Mercury at 98. Wakefield, Mass., Aug. 20.—With the mercury at 98 degrees, an elderly man, Abraham Muetsier, nearly caused a riot when he appeared in a long winter overcoat with the collar turned up and a felt hat pulled over his ears.

Serious damage from cutworms is reported from alfalfa fields along the Missouri river. So numerous are the worms that they are not only attacking fields of alfalfa and clover, but potatoes and other garden truck, and devouring the leaves of young fruit trees.

MATTEAWAN ASYLUM, FROM WHICH THAW FLED.

EXPLODING DYNAMITE KILLS 100 MEXICANS

Car Load of Explosive Blows Up in Suburb of Mexico City.

Mexico City, Mex., Aug. 20.—An explosion on a car loaded with dynamite on the tracks of a street car company in a thickly settled portion of Teucubaya, a suburb of the capital, killed or injured more than 100 persons, chiefly women and children.

Thirty bodies already have been taken from the ruins of the houses. Scores of wounded are lying in the streets.

The disaster is said to have been caused by a car loaded with iron pipe crashing into the dynamite car. For a radius of 500 feet from the scene of the explosion not a house was left intact and not a vestige of many of the buildings remained.

Most of the dwellings were of adobe construction and those nearest to the place where the car stood were converted into heaps of clay and dust, under which, it is estimated, scores of victims will be found. The persons killed belonged, for the most part, to the laboring class.

SCARED BY THIEF: DYING

Fright Causes Clot on Brain After She Fights With Burglar.

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Orlando Kejler, the wife of a manufacturer, is dying at her home from a clot on her brain, caused by fright when a burglar attacked her in her bedroom late on Saturday night.

When she awoke and found the intruder in her room Mrs. Kejler made an outcry and grappled with the burglar. He fought his way to a window and jumped out. After that Mrs. Kejler lapsed into unconsciousness and has been unable to recognize any of her relatives.

Specialists from the University of Pennsylvania who were called to examine her diagnosed the case as a clot on the brain. The burglar, William Tallent, an old offender, was captured by the police.

STEAMER TURNS TURTLE

Crew on Government Vessel May Be Caught in Cabin.

Keokuk, Ia., Aug. 20.—The government steamer Henry Bosse turned turtle in the Mississippi river off the Keokuk shore during a wind and lightning storm.

A crew of fourteen men were on board at the time and they were believed to have been trapped in the cabin below the waterline.

Drought Oddities In Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Drought conditions in southeast Kansas and parts of Missouri continue serious. Farm implements and vehicles are falling to pieces because of the heat shrunken wooden parts. Automobile owners say the heat is ruining their cars. Many new wells are being dug and nearly every farm is surrounded by plowed fire guards, as a spark in the dry grass and wheat stubble would start a conflagration. Many farmers are feeding their hogs wheat because it is cheaper than corn.

Bloody Trail Leads to Arrest.

Franklin, Pa., Aug. 20.—Carl Rudelsill, twenty-three years old, was arrested on the charge of larceny when the police followed a train of blood to his home from a store where robbers had broken a window. Rudelsill's hand was badly cut and he admitted falling through a window.

To check the pest it is recommended to cut the crop of hay as soon as possible and immediately thereafter to spray with a solution made by dissolving one pound of commercial arsenate of lead and one-half gallon of cheap molasses in sixty gallons of water.

Ross Leaves in Rope Silk. An excellent way to work rose leaves is by means of the fishbone stitch, especially if worked in a rope silk or coarse mercerized floss, although finer floss can be used with good effect on a small leaf. To make a leaf, start at the apex and take one small stitch on the central vein, then take a stitch on one side, in slanting position, ending at just over the central vein. Then take a stitch on the opposite side, ending it just over the central vein. Work in this way from side to side; alternating, working from the apex to the base. The leaf may be shaded by using different colors for one leaf, light green at the tip, dark green at the base, with a medium shade between the two.

NO ULTIMATUM FROM HUERTA

The War Scare is Ended by His Denial.

BLAME INTERIOR MINISTER

Lind Has First Meeting With Provisional President of Mexico and Reception Is "Cordial."

Washington, Aug. 20.—There is no immediate prospect of the United States becoming embroiled in war with Mexico.

The White House made public the substance of a cablegram from Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires in Mexico City, reporting that Provisional President Huerta had officially disclaimed responsibility for the statement reported as official to the effect that unless the United States recognized his government the American diplomatic representative would be handed his passports.

This was regarded in Washington as sufficient to settle the war scare that resulted from the publication of the newspaper dispatches from Mexico City regarding an "ultimatum."

The White House went a step further than this as a result of a report from John Lind, the president's personal representative. Lind reported that not only had there been no ultimatum issued by Huerta, but that he had a two hours' conference with the provisional president and had found him "most cordial."

This was the first time it has been admitted that Lind has been in conference directly with the Mexican president. White House officials authorized the statement that hope had not been lost entirely for the ultimate success of President Wilson's plan. They declared that the tone of Huerta's reply had not been final.

President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and administration officials generally, maintained a waiting mood and counseled a like course with senators of the foreign relations committee who agreed with them and quieted threatened outbreaks on the senate floor.

While Huerta's rejection of the American proposal as presented by Lind was a disappointment, officials were encouraged by advices from Lind that he was conferring further with Huerta, "at his suggestion."

Discussion of alternative measures was held in abeyance, although the proposal to permit exportations of arms to the Constitutionalists on an equality with Huerta came to the front again.

O'Shaughnessy's telegram was not given out verbatim at the White House. In substance it was as follows:
"Hearing of the reports which had been sent out by the newspaper correspondents at Mexico City that President Huerta had issued an ultimatum that the United States must recognize his government before midnight, and that in the event this was not done I would be given my passports, I called the matter urgently to the attention of the minister of foreign affairs. He immediately took it up with President Huerta, who authorized me to make official denial of the report."
"The minister of government (minister of the interior), Senor Urrutia, is suspected of having given out the report and the matter is under investigation by the Mexican government."

In addition to the message from O'Shaughnessy, Senators Lodge and Stone were shown a dispatch from Lind in which he said:
"Spent two hours with Huerta at his suggestion. Very cordial."
Included in the same message, but under date of Aug. 16, was the first part of the text of the note which constitutes the Huerta reply to the American proposal.

Its preliminary sections gave no hint of ultimate rejection, but were phrased in courteous terms.

It set forth historically the establishment of unofficial relations, conversations with Foreign Minister Gamboa, and the first conferences between Huerta and Lind. In this note Huerta refers to Lind as a "well informed man," animated by the sincerest motives to bring about a satisfactory solution of "the unfortunate tension" existing between the two nations.

The communication after narrating the developments that led up to the presentation of the American note, ends abruptly with the notation that the remainder would be forwarded later.

There was a tense feeling in official circles and a disposition to inquire further into the origin of the statements by Minister of the Interior Urrutia, demanding recognition for the Huerta government under the penalty of the severing of relations between the two countries.

NON-PARTISAN BALLOT ACT HELD VOID

Judge Says Elections Must be Same in All Cities.

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 20.—The act of June 27, 1913, containing the non-partisan ballot feature relative to third class cities, was declared unconstitutional in an opinion handed down by Judge John Q. Van Swearingen.

The judge also declared that the provision relative to changing Councilville from a borough to a third class city is constitutional and directed that an election be held this fall for city officers.

The opinion of the court said that the non-partisan feature was unconstitutional on the ground that the exercise of the election franchise is not within the purposes by which cities may be classified, and that if a special method of nominating and electing officers in third class cities may be maintained under the constitution, then a different method may also be used in first class cities, a different one in boroughs, in townships and in the state, which the court said was unconstitutional.

MINE EXPLOSION BURNS 3

Blast Follows Opening of New Working in Buck Ridge Colliery.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 20.—In an explosion of gas at the Buck Ridge colliery, operated by Irish Brothers, three miners were badly, if not fatally, burned.

The victims are: Thomas Kerman, burned about the head, face and body; William R. Rodwell, burned about the head and body; Anthony Bishinsky, burned about the head and body.

They were opening new workings and believed them to be free of sulphur. One of them went to the face of a breast with a naked lamp, which communicated with a body of gas.

The explosion hurled them several feet along the gangway. A rescuing party wrapped blankets about the victims and removed them.

SULZER IGNORES CARMODY RULING

New York Executive Will Appeal to the Courts.

NO CHANGE IN SITUATION

Fight For Possession of Governor's Office to Be Taken to the Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 20.—That Governor William Sulzer will decline to abide by the opinion of Attorney General Carmody, declaring Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn to be the acting governor of the state, but will seek a court decision to test the legality of his impeachment, was the general opinion expressed in official circles.

Some of the state departments that have been wavering as to whether they should continue to recognize Mr. Sulzer as chief executive are expected to follow the advice of the attorney general and accept Mr. Glynn as the acting head of the state government.

Lieutenant Governor Glynn prepared to take his fight into the halls of the legislature. Mr. Glynn was expected to send a message to the legislature in his capacity as acting governor, asking for the confirmation of certain nominees of state officers. Mr. Glynn was said to have a number of senators lined up in behalf of his program.

A bitter struggle is promised in the legislature, as both sides evidently have given up the idea of using military force on account of the spectacle it would afford the rest of the nation.

Before the senate convened there were persistent rumors that Tammany members had received orders from New York to crush Governor Sulzer.

Many members of the assembly representing rural districts have received letters from constituents urging them to support Governor Sulzer. Adherents of Mr. Sulzer charge that the Sulzer political foe plan to raid the state if Sulzer is driven from the executive chambers. The point to a certain bill providing for highway improvements in Rockland county as the beginning of the raid.

New light was shed on the elaborate plans of defense that are being made on behalf of Mr. Sulzer. It was learned that friends of his are preparing to spend $100,000 in the next four weeks to arouse sentiment throughout the state to prevent the impeachment from going to trial.

The $100,000 plan is being engineered by former Judge Lynn J. Arnold from the office of the Knickerbocker Press, a local newspaper, which on its editorial page has urged that Sulzer never ought to be tried on the charges lodged against him with the senate. The Knickerbocker Press is owned by Stephen J. Clark and Edward Clark, the owners of the Singer building, the Singer Sewing Machine company, and the large thread manufacturing concern which bears the family name.

The fight the Clark paper is conducting is being waged largely in an effort to bar Mr. Glynn from taking Mr. Sulzer's place at the head of the state government. Mr. Glynn is the owner of a rival newspaper at the capital.

GAS CAUSED MINE DISASTER

No One Blamed by Jury For Explosion That Killed Twenty Men.

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 20.—The coroner's jury investigating the cause of the explosion which killed twenty men at the East Brookside colliery on Aug. 2, rendered a verdict that the explosion was due to gas in Fire Boss Daniel Farley's district, but that no contributory negligence was discovered on the part of any one.

The verdict will relieve the Reading Coal and Iron company of the payment of damages to the widows of the victims, but the corporation has already placed these women on its permanent payroll.

DEMOCRATS DOWN

SUGAR AMENDMENT

Effort to Make Duty One Cent a Pound Defeated.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Democratic leaders in the senate put their sugar schedule through without difficulty.

On the only test vote taken on an amendment offered by Senator Brewster to make the duty on sugar one cent a pound, the amendment was lost by a vote of 39 to 34.

As passed the bill provides for free sugar after May 1, 1916, and one cent a pound meanwhile. Four Republicans were absent and not paired, or the vote would have been closer.

The above are just a few of the bargain farms on our list. If none of them seem to be what you want, come to see us and you can have your pick of 50 others. Remember, we have no more interest in selling one farm than another. We are not speculating but selling for a small commission.

Our business is growing as people begin to understand our methods of doing business. It is flattering to note that others, who have observed our success, are trying, by copying our advertising forms, to draw people to them. This is helping our business for their methods are not ours.

Write or call to see us.
